

Periodic methods, fixity and group actions

Alejandro Adem

We will discuss recent work on constructing free group actions for finite groups of higher rank. In particular we will show that if p is a prime, $p > 3$, then every rank two p -group acts freely and smoothly on a product of two spheres. A historical perspective will also be provided.