

A classification plan for non-differentiable actions on manifolds

Frank Quinn

Smooth actions of finite groups seem to have too much structure to allow comprehensible general classification. We propose a class of topological actions that seems more tractable, and describe questions in homotopy theory, surgery, and controlled topology related to a classification program.